

Help your Leaders handle the hard stuff.

Coaching that builds your Leaders' confidence to push through when responsibilities get hard.

Organizations that invest in their Leaders' effectiveness experience:

Deeper connection to the organization's mission

Stronger Team Performance

Smarter risk-taking

Leading with Resilience is a robust program tailored to your unique challenges. This program is perfect for high growth organizations or those experiencing internal or external challenges.

Designed to bolster confidence and provide layers of support needed to help Leaders develop skills for better team performance.

Leading with Resilience is a skills-based program that helps to develop critical leadership skills such as: having conversations that matter, giving effective feedback, delegation, manager as coach, foundations of leadership and more.

In our Leading with Resilience Program:

99%

of Participants report they are more resilient and authentic Leaders

93%

of Leaders report they've developed a more collaborative and curious approach when working with their team

92%

of Leaders report they are now more confident in their leadership

Need a program that enables Leaders to help the organization thrive during times of change?

Deploy Leading with Resilience to support your Leaders today!

Click here to schedule time with Jim Kanichirayil, Global Director of Business Development:

Or email: Jim@CoachingRightNow.com